Capture The Beauty of Huntley Meadows Park

Knock out your teen's mid-summer boredom with a great class at Huntley Meadows Visitor Center running Monday, July 23 through Thursday, July 26, 2007. Huntley Meadows will hold a nature photography class from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. each day geared for teenagers ages 12 to 16.

Capturing the beauty of nature is a skill that a person can appreciate and utilize throughout life. Huntley Meadows provides the perfect outlet for learning the art of nature photography. Relaxing and thrilling at the same time, nature photographers have the opportunity to create their own art while also enjoying the beautiful outdoors. Over 1,400 acres of forests, meadows and wetlands in the park make an ideal location for wildlife watching and photography.

Students will learn to use digital cameras and print their own high-quality images of the plants, animals and scenery in the park. Their images will be entered into the Friends of Huntley Meadows' annual photo contest!

Huntley Meadows is located at 3701 Lockheed Boulevard in Alexandria.

Reservations are required. Attendance in the program costs $90. For more information, please call 703-768-2525 or visit <http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/huntley>.
